THE GENEVA AWARD.

he Bill for the Distribution of the Geneva Award. from the House Committee on the Judiciary to provide for the just and equitable distribution of award made to the United States by the Comners at Geneva under the Treaty of Wash-

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, that out of the money paid by the government of Great Britain in satisfaction of the award of the arbitration at Geneva, under the Treaty of Washington, indemnification to the United States and citizens thereof and corporations organized under the laws thereof and corporations organized under the laws thereof or the laws of the several States and Perritories therein, shall be established and paid from the Treasury, in the manner hereinalter provided, to the following classes of claimants in the manner following:—

Pirst—For all loss, destruction or damage by any Confederate cruiser for whose acts the government of the United States have made upon the government of treat Britain, done to or sinfered by all such corporations and citizens of the United States, actual owners of property at the time of its destruction, whether ships or cargoes, outfit, advanced or other wages paid to officers and seamen, or freights actually carried.

To the officers and crews, being citizens aforesaid, all the wages which had been actually carned by them up to the time of their capture, loss or destruction in any vessel by such cruisers, together with the individual property of each respectively captured and lost or destroyed in the wessel so captured, who have not received the insurance thereupon; and to such officers and crews, or to any person on board cither of said vessels, an indemnity for damages actually sustained from such capture or detention, and the amount expended in feturning to their homes, or the place where they engaged in business or took employment, respectively, not including any prospective profits or wages not earned at the time of capture, which had been theretofore paid them.

To the United States, for all vessels the property at the time of capture, which had been therefore paid them.

To the United States, for all vessels the property of the government, or which were under charter to the United States, and for the destruction or loss of which the United States, by the terms of the charter party, was hable, which were captured and destroyed and lost by said crnisers, together with the property of the United States on board, and the same indemnity to the officers and crew of said vessels, respectively, as hereinbeiere provided in case of capture of private vessels, except where such losers were insured in part or in whole for the property so lost, in which case the indemnity shall be made only for the loss beyond the sum received by the loser for such insurance.

beyond the sum received by the loser for such insurance.

To all insurers being citizens or corporations of the United States respectively, having insured or reinsured property so destroyed, who shall show, by an exhibit of their books of account and business or otherwise, that the war premiums actually received by them did not equal in amount the losses paid by them because of property increatierward captured and lost or destroyed by either or all of said cruisers; provided that the amount paid to any mutual insurance company for losses so sustained shall be apportioned by the company among the members thereof at the time of the losses paid by them respectively, in proportion to the interest then owned by each member thereof; and provided further, that no insurer shall have any claim or right in the claims of any assured herein provided for because of any assignment, either in law or in fact, unless such assignee had actually paid a just and adequate consideration therefor other than underwriting the policy or settling or paying any loss claimed by the assured.

Second—To all such corporations or citizens as

or settling or paying any loss claimed by the assured.

Second—To all such corporations or citizens as aloresaid, who had paid a premium for war risks on vessels and cargoes, treights, or other property therein, after the sailing of either of said cruisers, to the amount of such extra on war premiums only, paid to them, whether they suffered loss by capture of their vessels and property or otherwise by said cruisers; provided, that in case of such premiums paid or secured to mutual insurance companies, the indemnity shall be the difference between the premium paid or secured and the returned security or premium therefor; provided further, that no claim for war risks which has been heretolore or may hereafter be assigned or transferred to any person, in whole or in part, or on which any then or interest is secured in any way, shall be allowed by the court before which such claim is made, and then, in addition to his statement of his cam, as herematter provided, declare under output first there is no lieu or chaim thereon and

and the period of the period of the period p agt, within thirty days, but not alterward, may appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States; and whenever any claim exceeding $5,000 shall be allowed, the United States shall have the same right of appeal; and if any claim shall be allowed in favor of the United States exceeding $5,000, any claimant, or any number of claimants jointly, may appeal thereiron; and all appeals shall be taken according to the law and rules governing appeals in equity from the Circuit to the Supreme Court, out only so much of the records of the Circuit Court contained in the bills, pleadings and evidence as may pertain to the claim in the judgment appealed from shall be sent up. Upon the allowance of any such appeal it shall pass immediately to the Supreme Court for hearing, without awaiting the decision of other claims, and such appeal shall not delay proceedings in the Circuit Court upon other claims flied in the cause; provided, however, that the death of any defendant shall not work a discontinuance of any part of the proceedings; but the legal representative may appear and prosecute his claim within such time as the Court may order.

SEC. 8.—That all appeals from the allowance or disallowance of such claims shall be entered at the term of the Supreme Court next after such appeal, and the Supreme Court shall give them precence of other causes in said court so far that they shall, if Dracticable, be heard at the term they are entered, and the decision of the Supreme Court shall have expired in which any claim can be filed in said Court the Judge shall certify a list of all such claims, showing in detail the gross amounts thereof to the Secretary of State, who shall cause a certified copy of such lists to be filed with the Secretary of the Troasury.

SEC. 10.—That when the time shall have expired in which any claim can be filed in said Court the Secretary of State, who shall cause a certified copy of such lists to be filed with the Secretary of the Troasury.

Secretary of State, who shall cause a certified copy of such lists to be filed with the Secretary of the Treasury.

Sec. 10.—That whenever final judgment shall be rendered in the Circuit or Supreme Court in invor of any claimant a certified copy thereof shall be issued to the claimant and a like copy be filed in the State Department.

Sec. 11.—That in case any judgment is rendered by a Circuit Court for tudemnity for any loss or claim hereinbefore mentioned against the United States, at the time of the giving of the judgment, the Circuit Court shall, upon motion of the attorney or counsel for the claimant, allow out of the amount thereby awarded such reasonable counsel and attorney less to the counsel and attorney employed by the claimant or claimants respectively as the Court shall determine is just and reasonable, as compensation for the services rendered the claimant in prosecuting such claims, which allowance shall be entered as part of the judgment in such case, and shall be made specifically payable as a part of said judgment for indemnification to the auttorney or counsel, or both, to whom the same shall be adjudged; and a warrant shall issue from the Treasury in favor of the person to whom such allowance shall be made respectively, which shall be in full compensation to the counsel or attorney for prosecuting such claim; and all then upon or assignments, tales, transfers, either absolute or conditional, upon whatever consideration, of any claim or part of parcet thereof provided for in this bill heretofore or hereafter made or done before such judgment is awarded and the warrant issued therefor, shall be absolutely null and void and of none effect.

such judgment is awarded and the warrant issued therefor, shall be absolutely null and void and of none effect.

Sec. 12.—That if the amount of all claims filed in Said cause shall not exceed the amount of said award, all the judgments of said Court, when smal, or of the Supreme Court, shall be paid as soon as certified; but if it shall appear that the gross amount of said claim so filed, with the interest and cost thereof as herein provided, shall exceed the whole amount of said award and interest, then the judgments on the first class of claims hereinbefore set forth only shall be paid in full when certified; and of the judgments upon claims of the second class hereinbefore provided fifty per centum only shall be paid upon certificates thereof, until all of said claims so filed in Court shall be determined and go into final judgment, when the remainder of the money paid on said award and the accrued interest shall be divided pro rate among said judgment claimants, but not to exceed the full amount of their said judgments, with interest thereon, up to the time of the rendition thereol.

Sec. 13.—That when it shall appear to the Secretary of the Treasury by the certificate of the Court, under the seal thereof, that a small judgment has been rendered in layor of a claimant, he shall issue his warrant for payment of the same out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated; and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized from time to sell in the market, after the notice, or cancel, at his election, such amount of the bonds of the United States in which such award paid by the government of Great Britain has been invested as will remounts the Treasury for the amount of the dimention of the United States and almost have been paid and satisfied then it shall be the duty of the secretary of the Treasury of the United States against the money so paid; and after all judgments issued upon said losses and claims have been paid and satisfied then it shall be the duty of the secretary of the Treasury of th
